Catch AFib Early

Incorporate a pulse check into routine clinician visits

Approximately 1/3 of people with AFib have not been diagnosed.

Oral anticoagulants can reduce the risk of stroke in about 70% of patients with AFib.

Strokes related to AFib are almost twice as likely to be fatal.